

CHALET POLANKA

Ski chalet for 12 - log fire, two kitchens, two living areas

Two family groups can enjoy time together as well as their privacy at this spacious ski chalet

About Chalet Polanka ...

This bright contemporary chalet was built in 2006/7, and combines modern conveniences such as underfloor heating with traditional Savoyard character.

Perched above the charming village of St-Jean-de-Sixt, just a two-minute drive away, Chalet Polanka enjoys fabulous views down the valley towards La Clusaz, and is in the perfect location for making the most of the Aravis mountains.

If you're tired of staying in impersonal hotels in the concrete jungles of big ski resorts, you'll really appreciate the trouble the owners have taken to make this chalet a home from home, using a unique blend of antiques and contemporary furniture, enhanced with their own art and accessories.
